Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Fayetteville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe—securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of consideration in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

THE PROGRAMME FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

It is the calculation, we understand, of the Radical managers, that the so-called Convention will complete its work by the 22nd of February, and that the Constitution, which they have been ordered by Congress—not by the people of North Carolina—to make, will be shortly thereafter submitted to the popular vote. Judging from the scanty progress which the Convention has thus far made, we have no idea that it will get through its labors by that time, to say nothing of the attractions of eight dollars per day in inducing the patriots to protract their stay. Two weeks of the session have elapsed, and literally nothing has been done save the consummation of a few measures in furtherance of party schemes and in the interests of party favorites.

It is in further contemplation, it is said, that, at the same time that the Constitution is submitted to the people, an election will be held for Governor, Legislature and Congressmen, and the rumor is current, and very generally believed, that it has already been determined, in a Radical caucus, that Mr. Holden is to be their nominee for Governor.

If this latter rumor be true, the action of the Radicals is based upon two calculations: First, that the Constitution will certainly be ratified by the people, and, secondly, that the disabilities of the ex Provisional Governor will be removed by Congress. Either the latter, or that the Constitution will be so liberal in its provisions,—which we are not yet prepared to believe,—as to leave eligible for office such old secessionists and former ardent war men, as the ex-Provisional aforesaid.

But leaving these matters to take care of themselves, and to be developed in the progress of events, we have to say that all this scheming and manœuvering, upon the part of the Radicals, renders imperious the absolute necessity of prompt and thorough organization upon the part of the Conservatives. We do not believe that the people of North Carolina are prepared to vote for the ratification of a Constitution, containing the feature of universal negro suffrage, even uncoupled (which will hardly be the case) with the disfranchisement of any portion of the white population of the State, and even though the nauseous pill should be sugared over with some specious and deceptive coating of relief, in the shape of virtual repudiation, or something of that sort.

For the purposes of this indispensable organization, if the expectations of the Radical leaders are accomplished, but a few weeks are left. In this view, the time fixed for the assembling of the State Conservative Convention is most opportune. We beg, therefore, again to impress, most earnestly, upon our friends in every section of the State the importance of seeing to it that the Convention is well attended. Let us bring to the conference which we propose to hold, for the honor and good of North Carolina, our wisest heads and soundest judgments. Let us place ourselves in a position to meet whatever emergency may arise. It is no undue prejudging of the work of the present so-called Convention, to assume, reasoning from the malignant feelings which have heretofore actuated its leading spirits and from the fell designs and doings of Radicalism elsewhere, that it will be such as cannot receive the sanction of true-hearted, patriotic, North Carolina, native white men.

CAPT. PLATO DURHAM.—This young gentleman, who represents Cleaveland county in the "so-called" Convention, now in session at Raleigh, has entitled himself to the thanks of every Conservative in the State, by the bold and patriotic stand he has taken against the policy of the Radicals. His vigorous and forcible defense of the freedom of the public press, which was assailed by the resolution introduced by Gen. Abbott, late of Massachusetts, in regard to excluding certain reporters, was well timed and highly honorable to Capt. D. Though in a hopeless minority, he will let no opportunity pass to raise his voice against any measures inaugurated by the Radical party in North Carolina, of a dangerous or mischievous tendency. Capt. Durham, though quite a young man, has the ability, the patriotism, and the nerve, and is making a record for himself in the political history of our State to which he may hereafter point with pride and gratification. Brave, modest, unassuming, he possesses a moral courage which will not flinch before overwhelming numbers, and which will blaze out all the more brightly in the hour of political gloom and disaster.

The foregoing compliment to Capt. Durham, which we take from the Henderson Index, is fully merited. It may be said of all of the small body of Conservatives in the so-called Convention, that they are entitling themselves to the thanks of the true people of the State, for their manly and determined stand against the Destructives,—powerless though their efforts may be.

BEECHER is writing "the Life of Christ." Unless he attempts to prove that Christ was a negro, we venture that his book will not attain one hundredth part the celebrity of his sister's "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Beecher blunders when he attempts to be an author. His fame rests upon his readiness and action as a talker.

POPE PIUS complains bitterly of the corruption of his subjects, the Romans. If the old gentleman were to visit the Great Republic, and go into the purlieus of office and learn something of our politicians, like the Queen of Sheba he would exclaim, "The half had not been told me."

THE FARMERS of South and Middle Georgia are dead broke, trying to make cotton, while those of North Georgia have grown rich, making corn and wheat.

HOW THE "MACHINE" RUNS.

The session of the "Convention," Saturday, like that of most of the previous days, was without incident of any importance. Several resolutions were presented, favoring the removal of disfranchisements, yet we observe a counter petition from this County, urging the disfranchisement of all of the late Confederate officers, above the rank of Colonel. We incline to the opinion that the Convention will leave disfranchisement where the Congress has, except that it will provide for the disfranchisement of all who oppose the ratification of the mongrel Constitution it will adopt.

The most remarkable proposition which we have yet seen, in any of the Southern Radical Conventions, is one submitted by Mr. Congleton, of Carteret. This man Congleton has a rare history. It is perhaps sui generis, and therefore extraordinary movements may be anticipated from such a source. His proposition is to the following effect (we have not his ordinance before us): "That this Convention has the right to declare, and does hereby declare, that all laws passed or all acts done, by any previous Legislature or Convention in this State, are null and void, and shall remain so until the meeting of the next Legislature, except the laws affecting marriage." There now! Is Congleton an ordinary or extraordinary man? Will he not be voted a nondescript, for having originated so uncommon an idea!

We presume that Gen. Canby has no special desire to provide an entire code of laws for North Carolina, during the chrysalis condition of the State. At present, and until the State is fully reconstructed, he is the only lawgiver, under the acts of Congress. For certain it is, the Convention has no law making power, without his consent or approval. Indeed, the Convention, under the Reconstruction Acts, has neither the ordinary nor extraordinary powers of a State Convention. It has no inherent legislative power, for all its acts are invalid, until the District Commander reproduces them in his orders from Headquarters. Congress has authorized the Convention to draft a Constitution, it is true, but what is it worth, even after the people have ratified it? Is it then a Constitution? Certainly not. It cannot have the force of organic law, until approved by Congress. Therefore, the body can have no inherent powers of legislation; since all such powers must be derived directly from the people, to whom this Convention is in no wise responsible.

Mr. Tourgee's resolution, proposed the other day, requiring investigation into the eligibility of members, was taken up and very properly pressed by him; but it was laid on the table. It should be called up again, as very serious consequences might grow out of the ineligibility of members.—There are some in the body, who held office before the war and during the war, but who have taken the oath.

"So intent are the Radicals upon reconstructing the Southern States by the present process, if possible, that whatever misgivings may be felt as to the constitutionality of their projected measure, the absolute necessity to the very life of Radical rule that negro governments shall be put in operation as speedily as possible in the South will, it is thought, overcome the scruples of even moderate-minded Senators, as far, at least, as Congress is concerned."

The reader would naturally conclude, on perusing the foregoing, that it emanated from some "rebel" source. We can therefore imagine the surprise which will be felt, when we say that the admission proceeds from an entirely Radical quarter,—being nothing less than the statement of the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. The whole tactics of the Radical party, in their various programmes of "reconstruction," are a full confession of their sure defeat, if the people are to be permitted to decide the great existing controversy.—The negro electoral vote of the South is so pertinaciously insisted upon, simply because it is felt that the Destructives are now, and will be next fall, in a large minority in the North!

GETTING RIGHT.—The Louisiana Radical Convention seems disposed to redeem its pledges to the blacks. That has nominated a white man for Governor and a negro for Lieutenant Governor of the State. The thing should have been reversed. In this State, as the negro Radicals are four to one, we insist that Cuffee Mayo shall be nominated for Governor, W. W. Holden for Lieutenant Governor, J. H. Harris for Treasurer and C. L. Harris for Chief Clerk, C. S. Pierson for Secretary of State and C. W. Horner, Clerk, Jos. W. Holden, Private Secretary of Gov. Mayo, John Hyman, Comptroller, with J. Flint Taylord, clerk; Handy Lockett, A. W. Tourgee and A. H. Galloway, Supreme Court Judges, and so on.—There is no use in talking about running "the machine" in any other way. If the blacks are equal and entitled to equal rights and privileges, we insist upon it, that they have a superior claim to the offices of the State, on account of their superior numbers.

We warn the "freedmen" to look closely to their honors. The "old issue," that is the old free negroes, will stand the best chance for the offices, every clip, if they are not watched.

The Danville Times extracts from a private letter of a correspondent. We commend the manly example to all: "Since the war I have not sickened and pined away in despair, bemoaning the unhappy fate of my country. I have gone to work, and have prospered. I once felt disposed to desert our State, as many have done; so far from now being dissatisfied with my present locality, I am eccentric enough to believe that there is not a spot in the wide world which affords better prospects for a man of real energy and enterprise, with a little capital, than Southside Virginia."

A negro all the way from Perquimans County, North Carolina, was in Norfolk on Tuesday, looking for a "posish" as a "perlice." He had been informed that the "white trash" had all been discharged from office as policemen, and their places were to be filled by darkeys. He immediately quit his work as a shingle-getter and started for the city by the sea. He was informed that he had been "cruelly done," and started home a wiser if not a better man.—Norfolk Journal.

Mr. Gunter, an ordinance on suffrage.—Referred.

Mr. Renfrow, a resolution in regard to "contracts incomplete." Referred.

Mr. Peterson, a resolution in reference to the election of county officers. Referred.

Mr. Tourgee's ordinance, inquiring into the propriety of taking steps in regard to members of this body, who are disqualified by the provisions of the 2d, section of the act of March 2d., 1867, which was referred, some days ago, by mistake, was, by consent of the House, taken up.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Tourgee thought that, in courtesy to him, he should be allowed to say something on the subject, before such action.

Harris withdrew his motion, when

Mr. Tourgee said that he had understood that there were members on this floor disqualified by the aforesaid act. He thought that action should be taken irrespective of political affinities. He thought if some such action was not taken, that this thing might invalidate the proceedings of this Convention. He did not care particularly to discuss the matter to-day, but wished to refer to Committee of the Whole, on Monday next.

(The President vacated his seat, calling Mr. Rodman to preside.)

Mr. Abbott thought that if the subject was referred to the Committee of the Whole, and such Committee went into an examination of such cases, too much time would be consumed.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) concurred with Mr. Abbott, and thought Gen. Canby the proper person to be applied to in such cases; that the Convention had no authority in the matter, and renewed his motion to table.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, called for the yeas and nays.

The call was not sustained, and the question on the resolution being put, resulted in laying the same on the table.

A communication from Col. Bomford, acknowledging the invitation to U. S. officers, on duty at this Post, to the floor of the House, was read and ordered to be spread on the record.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The resolution of Mr. Jones, of Washington, requesting the Treasurer to furnish a statement of the amount of stock held by the State, in the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company, was taken up and adopted.

Also a motion, by the same, requesting the Treasurer to furnish a statement of the amount of the State indebtedness. Adopted.

A resolution by Robbins, (negro,) prohibiting the hauling of logs on the Sabbath, was taken up.

Galloway, (negro,) objected to its passage and hoped it would be voted down.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved to lay it on the table. Carried.

Mr. Rodman's resolution, in regard to printing, was next reached and passed.

GENERAL ORDER.

Mr. Welker's ordinance, in reference to the liabilities of Banks, was taken up and referred.

The ordinance, by the same, providing for the admission of members of the Bar of other States, to practice in the Courts of this, upon the presentation of license, was also referred.

On motion of Mr. Ellis, the Convention then adjourned.

We notice that Dan Castello's Menagerie will be in Wilmington soon. Does Wilmington intend to vie with Raleigh in everything.—Henderson Index.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WATAUGA.

According to previous notice, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservative citizens of Watauga was held in the Court House, in Boone, on Monday, 13th January, 1868, when the following proceedings were had:

Col. Jonathan Horton was called to preside over the meeting, who, on taking the chair, in a few appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting to be to consider the condition of the country, and to appoint delegates to a Conservative Convention of the State, shortly to assemble in the city of Raleigh, and urging the importance of action on the part of all good men in opposition to the fanatical and unconstitutional policy of the Radical party.

When, on motion, Wm. Horton and Jordan Cook were called on to act as Secretaries.

On motion, a Committee of five, to wit: Dudley Farthing, Esqr., Lieutenant D. B. Dougherty, Maj. Harvey Bingham, Wm. F. Shull, Esq. and Capt. Wm. S. Davis were appointed to prepare business for the meeting.

Maj. Q. F. Neal, being called on, responded in a very able address of about half an hour, at the conclusion of which Maj. Malone, being called for, took the stand, and, in an able and forcible speech, entertained the meeting until the Committee returned, who reported, through the Chairman, D. Farthing, Esq., the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That now, as heretofore, we are unalterably in favor of a constitutional Union.

Resolved, That we view, with regret and apprehension, the impending danger to the whole country, growing out of the violent, proscriptive and revolutionary policy and purposes of the Radical party.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves, if possible, to defeat the aims of those partizans, who, regardless of the instincts of their race, and the good of the whole country, are endeavoring to establish political and social equality between the white and black races, and virtually negro supremacy and domination, in this and other Southern States of this Union.

Resolved, The white men of the mountains of North Carolina feel an instinctive and conclusive evidence that they were intended by the God of nature to be the superiors of the black race; that any white man, who attempts to place the negro upon an equality with them as to citizenship, without reference to his qualifications to discharge its duties, is a traitor to his own race, a foe to society, and an enemy to mankind: And that this class of white men are the only ones amongst us who are so far fallen from the proud and glorious instincts and associations of their own race, as to be fit for equality with negroes.

Resolved, That we approve of the proposition to call a State Conservative Convention, to meet in the city of Raleigh, and that we will be represented there.

Resolved, That the County of Watauga has heretofore signified her adherence to the principles of the foregoing resolutions, by voting the Conservative ticket, and she pledges herself, in any coming election, to increase her majority for Conservative and constitutional principles.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting be requested to appoint five intelligent and discreet white men to represent the County of Watauga in the proposed Conservative Constitutional Union Convention, to be held in the city of Raleigh.

In compliance with the last resolution, the Chairman appointed, as delegates to said Convention, Dudley Farthing, Esq., Lieut. D. B. Dougherty, Wm. F. Shull, Esq., Capt. A. J. Critcher and Maj. Harry Bingham; and, on motion, the names of the Chairman and Secretaries were added to the list.

On motion of Maj. Malone, it was

Resolved, That in case none of the delegates hereby appointed do attend the State Convention, that Hon. Z. B. Vance and Hon. A. S. Merrimon be requested to represent this County as proxies.

On motion of D. B. Dougherty, it was

Resolved, That the Secretaries of this meeting be requested to send a copy of these proceedings to the Editors of the Sentinel for publication; and that all other Conservative papers be requested to copy.

When the meeting adjourned.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN MARTIN.

On Tuesday, the 14th, it being the second day of the January Term, of Martin County Court, a public meeting was held for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Conservative Convention to meet in Raleigh on the 5th Feb'y next.

On motion Jos. D. Biggs, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Bryant Bennett, Esq., appointed Secretary.

D. W. Bagley, Esq., explained the object of the meeting, and entertained the assembly in his usual clear style—denouncing the unconstitutional course of the Republicans, and showing the great necessity of an organization among those who oppose their ruinous policy.

The immediate business of the meeting being the appointment of delegates, the following gentlemen were selected, and requested to represent the Conservatives of Martin in the approaching State Conservative Convention to be held in Raleigh on the 5th of Peburay next, viz: Hod. J. R. Stubbs, J. Edwin Moore, J. D. Biggs, A. H. Coffield, Hardy Mizell, Thomas Jones, Bryant Bennett, H. D. Robason, Jerre Slade, N. B. Fagan, and D. W. Bagley, Esq'rs.

HANCOCK AT NEW ORLEANS.—The following extract, says the New York Journal of Commerce, from a private letter by General Hancock, dated at New Orleans, January 6, 1868, is characteristic of that distinguished soldier, and will interest many of our readers. It has been furnished to us by the receiver, without the knowledge of the writer, but there can certainly be no harm in publishing it:

"I always object to being placed in command here when consulted. When, in obedience to orders, it became necessary to occupy the position, I came determined to carry out the laws—not to make new ones, unless necessary, and only when civil one failed. I shall always regard the law, acting inside of it, not outside. If new laws are required, it is for Congress to make them. Those in force I shall not execute in a partisan spirit; as long as I remain I will execute those in full. Having often to choose between the civil and the military law, I take the former; and when powerless, will try and build it up. If the officers fail, I will appoint new ones, and if no good ones can be found, may have to resort to military despotism. I do not believe that will come. When it does I may make as good a despot as any one. I shall send you copies of my orders, which will show my course of action to be in conformity with law."

The "breeze" between Messrs. Chandler, of New York, and Julian, of Indiana, in the House of Representatives, Wednesday, in which the former called the latter a coward, will not lead to "consequences," it is thought, although Mr. Julian declared in pretty plain terms that the New York member could have an opportunity to test the truth of his assertion. The latter replied promptly that he would embrace the earliest opportunity to settle the little unpleasantness. How it was to be settled was not intimated, but when, a few moments afterwards, the two gentlemen disappeared from their seats in the hall visions of a duel were at once conjured up in the minds of the spectators in the gallery. But after a short time both gentlemen returned from opposite directions, Mr. Julian to resume his seat and enter into conversation with his friends, and Mr. Chandler with overcoat on as though prepared for a walk. It was evident that the gentlemen had not met, and it is doubtful if they ever will meet for an encounter. There are too many of these scenes to excite any alarm. Their only tendency, is to amuse the galleries for the moment, and to disgust the more thinking portion of the members on the floor.—Washington Letter.

It is said that the wild ass "leeds on the wind." But the black asses of the Georgia Convention can't raise the wind to feed on.—Prentice.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and COARSEST materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

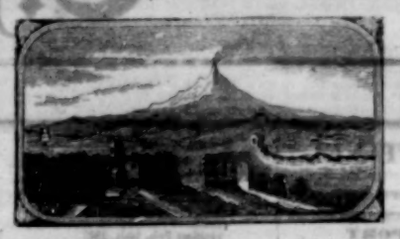
THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.



PAID POLICIES IN NORTH CAROLINA: BY DEATH, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company's scope to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

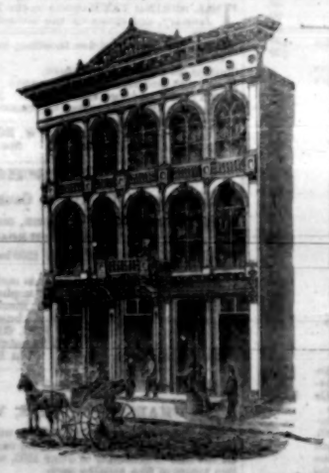
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. AND HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.



Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 1868.

CONVENTION.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Several of our friends have remitted us monies for new subscriptions, according to our last year's terms. In every case we give such subscribers full credit for the amount sent, according to our new terms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Havens et als. vs. Guthrie et als: Matthew Shaw, C. M. E., Beaufort County.

Allen Fowler, Averasboro', forewarns all persons against trading for a certain note for $200, given to Mary M. Cotton.

Choice Fruit Trees and Grape Vines:—Westbrook & Co., Proprietors of the Westbrook Nurseries, Greensboro, N. C. We have so often spoken of these gentlemen, of the fame of their Nurseries, and of their choice varieties, that we need only call attention to their Card.

Singer's New Family Machine, at Manufacturers' prices: W. H. Crow & Sons, Agents, over Messrs. Tucker & Co's Store.

ERRATUM.—In Col. Whitford's letter, published on yesterday, the sentence occurred: "If the N. C. Railroad cannot get more for carrying freight to Norfolk, via Goldsboro', the interest of the shippers and stockholders would demand its stopping at the latter place." After the words "via Goldsboro', the words "than via Raleigh" should be inserted.

THEATRE.—The performance by Sargent's Dramatic Corps, on Saturday night, was unusually attractive and went off brilliantly. Mr. Phelps in the Stranger, and in his great comic character of Jeremy Diddler, was very fine.

The Company will only give two more representations in this City,—to-night and to-morrow night. They will create a sensation wherever they go.

PEACH BLOW.—We are indebted to our enterprising and liberal friends, J. B. Hunter & Co., General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va., for the acceptable present of a half-barrel of the celebrated Peach Blow Potatoes,—the finest and largest, without exception, we have ever seen. In sending them, Messrs. H. & Co. say:

"They were grown on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. Why is it that the people of your section do not turn their attention more to the growing of such crops for market? They are worth, in our market, $5 per barrel. From 200 to 400 bushels can be produced per acre. You can see at once how much more profitable it would be than raising cotton, even at 20 cts. per lb.,—yes, at 25 cts. We have a large supply on hand, both for seed and culinary purposes."

ON DIT.—It is rumored that one of the Radical leaders in this State, not a member of the Convention, has been on hand, with the ready money to cash the pay-rolls of members, at $6 per day. The "trooly loil" seem bent upon making the dimes.

REV. DR. BLACKWELL proposes to lecture in Norfolk, on the "Philosophy of Sorrow." A very profitless subject. Everybody understands the cause, but who can find its cure, this side of Heaven?

THE NORFOLK Virginian learns that in the neighborhood of Smoketown and Barnes' Hill, there is no safety to smokehouses or barns, or anything else. Certainly not. Negredom reigns therein all its indolence and crime.

RALEIGH SENTINEL.—We are pleased to see the friends of this excellent paper manifesting a proper interest in its behalf.—Within a short time, it has acknowledged the reception of several club subscriptions. We trust many similar favors are in store for it. We do not know that our opinion will go for much, but we believe, that the Sentinel, as at present conducted, is the best paper ever published in Raleigh, and quite superior to any N. C. daily we have yet seen.

We thank our friend Kingsbury, of the Warrenton Indicator, for his flattering estimate of the Sentinel. This much we may say, that there is no paper, we are sure, in the South, upon which more of unremitting labor is bestowed.

Mr. George Francis Train has been released by the authorities at Cork. Immediately thereafter Mr. Train instituted an action against the Crown for illegal arrest, laying his damages at one hundred thousand pounds sterling.

ESCAPED.—John Yarbrough, the man who some months ago broke out Hillsboro', N. C., jail, and who was arrested in Danville by Policeman Price, a few days since, made his escape from our jail last Saturday night.—Danville Register.

For the Sentinel.

THE ALBERT NYANZA, GREAT BASIN OF THE NILE, AND EXPLORATIONS OF THE NILE SOURCES—By Samuel White Baker. With Maps, Illustrations and Portraits: London, MacMillan & Co.; J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, 1866. pp 509. 8vo.

During a long life, I have never read a more interesting or instructive book of travels. It is, as such, the book of the age. The mystery of the Nile has been cleared, and now resolves itself into comparative simplicity. But it took the explorer five weary years to trudge through scorching deserts and thirsty sands; through swamp and jungle and interminable morass; through difficulties, fatigues and sickness, before he reached a point from which he could look down upon the vast Albert Lake, and drink water from the sources of the Nile.

The book is written by an Englishman—a scholar, a gentleman, and a christian,—and should be bought and read by all who love adventure and seek for wholesome knowledge.

I propose to make an occasional extract from it, for the special edification of a certain class of people among us. The author says, on page 9 of the preface: "I will exhibit a picture of savage man precisely as he is; as I saw him; and as I judged him, free from prejudice." The following is the first "picture" I select and the only one I offer in this paper. On pages 163, 164, he says: "Although the Latookas were far better than other tribes that I had met, they were sufficiently annoying; they gave me no credit for real good will, but they attributed my forbearance to weakness."—He then tells a story to illustrate this statement, and afterwards proceeds: "Nothing is more heart breaking than to be so thoroughly misunderstood, and the obtuseness of the savages was such, that I never could make them understand the existence of good principle; their one idea was "power,"—force that could obtain all—the strong hand that could wrest from the weak. In disgust, I frequently noted the feelings of the moment in my journal; a memorandum from which I copy as illustrative of the time: '1863, 10th. April, Latooka:—I wish the black sympathisers in England could see Africa's inmost heart as I do,—much of their sympathy would subside. Human nature viewed in its crude State as pictured amongst African savages is quite on a level with that of the brute, and not to be compared with the noble character of the day. There is neither gratitude, pity, love, nor self denial; no idea of duty; none whatever of religion; but covetousness, ingratitude, selfishness and cruelty. All are thieves, idle, envious, and ready to plunder and enslave their weaker neighbors.'"

Some one—the owner of the book, as I judge from the hand-writing—has written as a foot-note to the above: "Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots?" and a capital comment it is.

I close this paper with a single reflection. By the cupidity of our Northern neighbors, a large number of these poor, ignorant savages were thrown on the hands of the Southern people. They became their slaves,—the only normal condition of the negro—and after long years of care and training, they were by degrees losing their savage character,—were becoming civilized and christianized, and were, beyond comparison, the best fed, the best clothed, the most contented and the happiest laboring population on the face of the earth. By one stroke of the pen, these four millions of semi-civilized and christianized people have been set free! with the almost certain prospect of degenerating into their original state of savagedom, as described above by Baker, or of being, in time, wholly exterminated. Has there been an act of more enormous wickedness perpetrated by one man within a half dozen centuries?

D. L.

"We confess our inability to comprehend the reasoning by which a measure subversive of all liberty can be twisted into a measure for placing beyond jeopardy the life of the republic. Mr. Bingham's ornate rhetoric may command the "rapt attention" of his hearers, as the reporter asserts, but we do not see how it could influence the judgment of any man who distinguishes between fine phrases and the stern logic of facts. We know the pretext on which the President is set aside and General Grant invested with more than regal authority, but the mere use of terms does not satisfy us that the right of Congress to do this, and much more of the same sort, is derived from its obligation to guarantee a Republican form of government to the respective States.

The sound may have been delightful when Mr. Bingham referred to the framers of the Constitution as "those mighty men whom God taught to live for glory and beauty;" but the veneration would be more practical if it took the shape of reconstruction in accordance with the principles they laid down. The overthrow of civil government in ten States, and the creation of a dictatorship with a soldier as its occupant, scarcely harmonize with these principles. The fathers, too, were more tolerant in their interpretation of what constitutes a Republican form of government. They furnished no precedent for the absolutism by which Mr. Bingham would force upon States the views of a Congressional majority without regard for the will, the opinions, or the interests of their white population.

The same want of bottom is traceable in all the arguments delivered in support of the bill. They were all either rhapsodies, signifying little, or unblushing defences of a policy which puts no limit to legislative usurpation.

How the measure will fare in the Senate we shall probably soon know. We dare not hope that the reputed moderation of that body will so far prevail as to modify provisions so palpably at variance with the principles of Republicanism and the acknowledged platforms of the Republican party. The zeal of partisanship for the time outruns prudence, and drives patriotism into the background."

A NOBLE GOVERNOR.—The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel thus speaks of the honorable Governor of Georgia, Charles J. Jenkins, of whom it may be truly said:

"More true joy Marcellus exiled feels,
Than with a listening Senate at his heels."

The people of Georgia have reason to be proud of the high and honorable position which Governor Jenkins has taken in this matter. Gen. Meade, with all his power, has not been able to drive him a single inch from the straight and honest course which his oath of office required him to take. He has fallen in the defence of the rights of the white people of the State, which had been unanimously intrusted to his care, but has fallen like a true knight, with his face to the foe. How infinitely superior does the dethroned Jenkins ride above the poor creatures who have been instrumental in his overthrow! He has, in this vicarious suffering, become doubly dear to the people of the State, and in God's good time he will receive the reward which such heroic firmness and rigid honesty so richly merit.—The decapitated Jenkins is ten thousand times dearer to the people to-day than before his fall.

The entire session of the House was devoted to spread-eagle speeches.

HABEAS CORPUS—VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Jan. 25, P. M.

The Habeas Corpus case, before Judge Underwood, to test the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Act, was to-day adjourned until Wednesday. The Commandant of the Libby person produced the prisoner, and made return that he was held by Gen. Schofield, under authority of the Reconstruction Acts.

The prisoner was represented by four prominent lawyers, all members of the Conservative Central State Committee, which body brings the case up, with the intention of carrying it to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Nothing important in the Convention, to-day.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

JACKSON, MISS., Jan. 25, P. M.

A report from a select Committee was made, requesting Gen. Gillem to suspend collection of poll tax for 1867, on all persons denied representation. Recommitted, under suspension of the rules.

The Convention went into an election of Treasurer, provided for by tax ordinance. Parsons, one of Adams county delegates, was elected.—A resolution was adopted, that no delegate, recommending Collectors to the Convention for his county, shall receive any compensation for services in the Convention, until sufficient amount is collected by said county to pay said services; provided, on investigation, it be found that said Collector is an irresponsible person. The Convention proceeded to appoint Collectors for such counties as were prepared to nominate. Of thirty-two appointments only one known to be colored.

Hon. W. L. Sharkey, E. M. Yerger, and A. H. Handy, have been appointed to represent the Democratic party of Mississippi in the National Democratic Committee.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Jan. 25, P. M.

The Convention voted $50 to each member, out of the $10,000 received yesterday.

Four additional sections of the Bill of Rights (none of a novel nature) was adopted.

The Committee on Finance reported that Gen. Meade had appealed to Grant for a loan of sufficient amount, of the funds sent by the State of Georgia to pay its indebtedness to the government, on the Western and Atlantic Railroad, to defray all the expenses of the Convention, and that Gen. Grant accepts the propositions, so far as his power extends. Will answer definitely to-day, if possible. Should this proposition fail, he will direct Gen. Ruger to ascertain, immediately, upon what terms the money can be procured from parties in Savannah.

Three candidates for Governor, under the new Constitution, if ratified, have been nominated.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25, P. M.

From the Washington Correspondence Baltimore Gazette.

"I wrote the other day that unless the Radicals were restricted by some power which they must needs recognize, this headlong course would, ultimately, produce civil war, as it could not be supposed that a people accustomed to civil liberty for centuries, would finally yield, and become slaves to a parcel of "epauletted struts." I observe, by an authorized publication, that the President of the United States entertains the same views. I suggest, as the peaceful remedy, an assemblage of the people in masses everywhere, and by their numbers and earnestness to convince Congress of the urgent necessity of retracing their steps. Mr. Johnson seems to look to a shorter cut. He is reported to have said: "A revolution, such as these headlong spirits seem determined to precipitate, may have, if it is suffered to go on, an effect more damaging than that of the last civil war." And upon being questioned as to his intention "to exercise all the authority vested in him by the Constitution to repel these revolutionary measures," he continued with emphasis:

"The President has already expressed his intention to perform his duty. As to what that duty may involve—" (laying his hand lightly on the table, and drumming with his fingers during the pause)—"it would be rather premature, just now, even to suggest. We will leave special measures for special occasions when they arise. I have confidence in the good sense of the army, and certainly I believe in the people. I believe in the young men; they will not permit a revolution to be accomplished, even though," added the President, in a serious, but not at all threatening tone, "it might be necessary for the people to take the matter into their own hands."

Negro: Mr. Botts, I feels mity bad dis morning; I feels as if I was free no more, case de Conservative Manzy am elected ober you.

Botts: Do not feel despondent; your are as free and as good this morning as I am.

Negro: Yes, marster Botts, I knows I'se as good and free as you am, but I want to be as free and good as de Conservatives.

HOW NEW HAMPSHIRE WILL VOTE.—The question of taxation is agitated by the Democrats and many Republicans, and unless Congress accomplishes something definite before the 10th. day of March, when the election occurs in this State, it will go Democratic.—New York Times—Letter from Concord.

HARD TIMES IN TENNESSEE.—At a recent execution sale in Lincoln county, Tennessee, sixteen bales of good cotton sold at six cents per pound, and sixty barrels of corn in peas brought only sixteen cents per bushel.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 1868.

From the National Intelligencer.

A WORKINGMAN'S INQUIRIES.

During the debate on the bill to establish a military despotism in the South, backed by the Regular Army, General Cary, of Cincinnati, a Republican elected by the workingmen to Congress over the regular candidate, addressed the following pertinent questions to his colleague, Mr. Bingham, the author of this atrocious scheme:

"1. If General Grant shall neglect or refuse to execute the provisions of this law, or if in its execution he should act in a cruel and oppressive manner, to what tribunal can he be amenable for his confessance and malfeasance?

"2. As by the terms of the bill the President cannot interfere, can the General be tried by court-martial; and if so, who can order and who shall constitute the court?

"3. Not being a civil officer, can he be impeached; and if so, by whom and before what tribunal?

"4. If he cannot be arraigned by any earthly tribunal, is he not made an absolute despot?"

Mr. Bingham evaded an immediate and direct answer to the inquiries, and, when he subsequently attempted a reply, it was by changing their form to suit his convenience, and by dodging the real issue so pointedly and clearly presented by General Cary.

These interrogatories contain the whole argument against this iniquitous and arbitrary measure, which malicious ingenuity has invented to perfect the work of vengeance and subjugation after having failed to accomplish those objects in the previous experiments of tyranny and oppression. They furnish a condensed expression of the substance and intention of a project, which designedly creates an "absolute despot" in the person of General Grant, without responsibility to any military or civil tribunal whatever. They show, beyond the possibility of dispute, that the design of the Jacobin majorities in Congress is to subvert the Government by a plan which shall arbitrarily divest the President of his constitutional function as Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, and consolidate power in the hands of a military dictator, backed by the Regular Army.

This step towards the overthrow of free institutions is only a natural and logical consequence of a series of preparatory usurpations, by which these Radical rebels have endeavored to strike down every safeguard of the public liberties. They have crippled the Executive authority in every possible way, so that that co-ordinate branch of the Government, which is vested by the Constitution with certain duties and rights to prevent such excesses of arbitrary legislation as have been witnessed under the existing party rule, is bound and manacled in such a manner as to be comparatively powerless for the protection of the public weal. They have purposely deprived the Supreme Court of all its traditional and consecrated efficiency, so that justice might no longer be fairly administered by that honored tribunal. They have audaciously appropriated functions and duties belonging to other departments of the Government, and in a reckless exercise of unconstitutional powers, have dared to declare that all authority resides in this rump Congress. Imitating the spirit without the dignity of Louis XIV., they proclaim, in his words, l'etat c'est moi! or, in plain English, We, the rump Congress, are the Government.

It is not surprising, therefore, that a moderate Republican like General Cary, who claims peculiarly to represent the workingmen, or bone and sinew of the country, in contrast with the shoddy aristocracy which these Jacobins have sought to create by corruption and public plunder, should rebel against this last outrage, and expose its enormity in the stinging and forcible manner which he has done.

We honor him for his manliness, and we hope that the workingmen, the farmers, the mechanics, and the great masses, without respect to party, will imitate this excellent example by meeting together and denouncing the authors and abettors of an infamous conspiracy. Let the mighty voice of the people be heard from ocean to ocean, in indignant protest against these monstrous usurpations. Let them organize forthwith for the great struggle which is impending, between the toiling and honest masses on the one side, who love liberty and popular government, and a combination of monopolists and speculators, who have attained fabulous wealth at the people's expense, and who aim to establish a military despotism on the ruins of the Republic, by the aid of Gen. Grant and the Regular Army. This issue is presented plainly and palpably, and cannot be evaded. The very existence of free institutions is at stake, and whoever disguises the danger that is now so imminent betrays the duty which appertains to every American citizen to defend the liberties which he ought to enjoy. It is only by neglect and by misplaced confidence that those liberties can be seriously compromised. Let us all, therefore, be at our posts, as sentinels to sound the alarm, and to prepare for the grave perils in which unscrupulous agitators have determined to involve the country. Public meetings, irrespective of party, should at once be called, to give expression to the popular sentiment.

[From the Detroit Free Press.]

At the breaking out of the late civil war, there lived in the interior of Mississippi a wealthy family named Western, consisting of a father, mother and two sons. But the rude blast of war swept over the land, and the family became widely separated, leaving only the old people at home. During the four years of terror which followed, one of the sons perished in the Confederate army, and the other emigrated westward, and for many months no tidings of him reached his parents. At length the father, unable longer to endure the suspense, started in search of his son, and during his absence the wife and mother decamped with $20,000. Whither she went at first we are not informed, but a short time ago the chief of police of this city received a letter from the son alluded to above, informing him that Mrs. Western was then in this city at work in a dress making establishment on Woodward avenue, and requesting him to keep trace of her movements until his father himself would arrive. The chief called at the establishment indicated in the letter and found the woman, whom he caused to be arrested. By dint of a little sharp practice, about one-third of the money was recovered, but she persistently refused to give any information that would lead to the recovery of the remainder. When asked why she left home under such circumstances, she replied vaguely, and her general demeanor was such as to induce the belief that she is at times insane. At least, to said her son. She offered no objections to returning home, but, on the contrary, assented with the greatest eagerness. Whether she was accompanied in her flight by any person, and what has been done with the remaining fourteen thousand dollars, are problems yet to be solved. However, there was forgiveness, and a comparatively happy reunion at the office of the chief of police and the two started for home.

FRIGHTFUL CASE OF SELF DEFENCE.

A father-in-law was recently killed by his son-in-law at Hunteville, Tennessee. Buntin, the son in-law, was employed to work with him. We quote the rest from the West Tennessee Whig:

"About one o'clock on Tuesday Britton went to Buntin's house and demanded a settlement, to which the latter agreed, remarking that he would go to a friend's store, divide the accounts, and hand over to Mr. Britton his portion. To this Britton objected, and declared that he would have a division of the accounts on the spot or he would kill his son in-law, and to carry out this threat he seized an axe and made a terrible blow at Mr. Buntin, who evaded the stroke, and, with the assistance of his wife, and a negro woman, wrested the axe from him. Mr. Buntin then escaped to an adjoining room and bolted the door. Securing the axe again, Britton attempted to break through the door. Failing in this, the infuriated man ran out of the house and entered the room in which Buntin had taken refuge, by another door. Buntin made his escape out of this room and fled from the house, concealing himself this time behind the smoke-house. In the room that Buntin first took refuge there was a shot gun, and this he took with him in his flight; determining, however, not to use it if it could be avoided. But to save his own life, he was compelled to take that of another; his father in law following him to the last retreat, and attempting a second time to carry out his fell purpose, Buntin discharged the contents of the gun into the head of the desperate man, killing him instantly."

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st, DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th day of April, 1865, for the 18th day of May, 1867.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment possessed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, created qua talis, whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 33, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations, or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offenses, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

SOUTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st day of March, 1868.
